Moment of reckoning

The concrete beach

"And it was forty - love when ..."

"We clean our dentures with Pepsi!"

A novel idea is Ms. Thorp's,
Whose students' minds she unwarps,
By feeding them tales
Of knights and their grails,
While swinging a librarian's corpse.

"Coffee, tea, or milk?"

"This taffy's like glue!"

"Yes, this is a referral, young lady!"

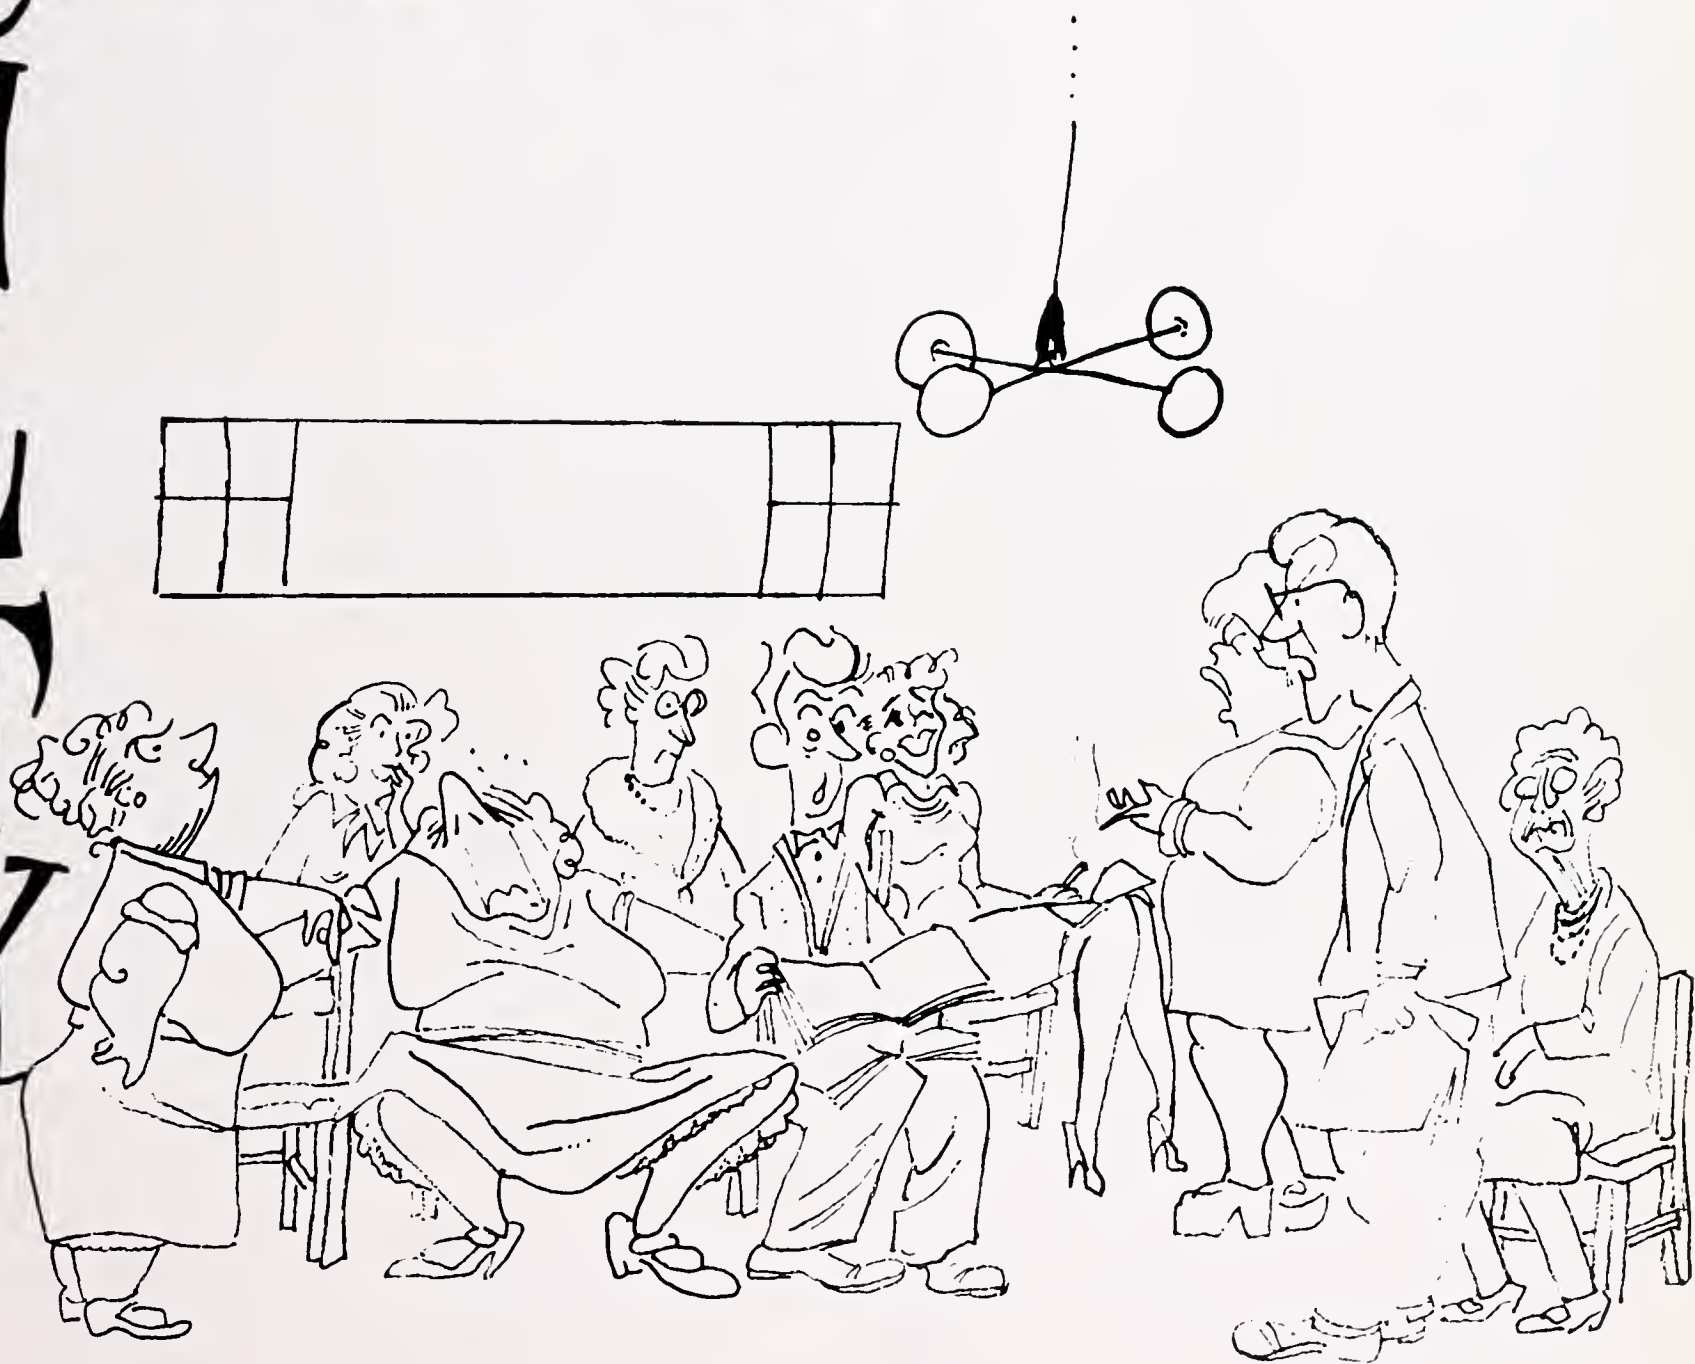

"Don't shoot!"

1979

This is my fifth opportunity to write a message for the yearbook. It is always a little hard to do since we are in the fourth week of school and you will be reading the message the last week. Now that I don't have to pretend, just let me say that I truly hope this has been a good year for you. If it has not you will get another chance next year and you can make it happen.

Sincerely,

B. Ferreira
Principal

At the close of the school year is time we all pause, look back at the seemingly small events which help to make a year. With this yearbook we can look back together and smile.

Your education here at King should help prepare you to make proper decisions in carrying out your future responsibilities.

I hope this year has been an extremely stimulating gratifying, and, most of all, rewarding experience for you as it was for me.

Your friend,

Dr. Randolph
Vice Principal

"You think it's easy
keeping up this image?!"

"Not in front of the kids...!"

"Please, no, I beg of you!"

There once was a counselor named Dean,
Who hated to hear words obscene,
If students dared say 'em,
The man would dismay 'em,
By soaping their little mouths clean.

The three Furies

'I spell RELIEF
'L-A-S-T P-E-R-I-O-D

'Okay, Ed, I'll suspend both of them right away.'

'So alright already.'

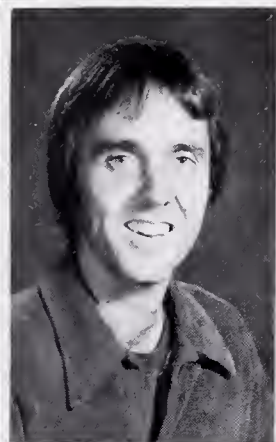

'We use CLOSE-UP

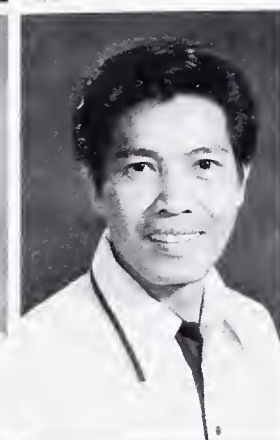

'And here's my Mona Lisa smile.'

"Cat Burglars Caught in the Act"

Only the Shadow knows!

There once was a shop man named Jewett,
Who made his kids really hop to it,
Their loudness would fade,
When a sabre-tooth blade,
Made them fear that they'd not live to rue it.

"Bless our humble school."

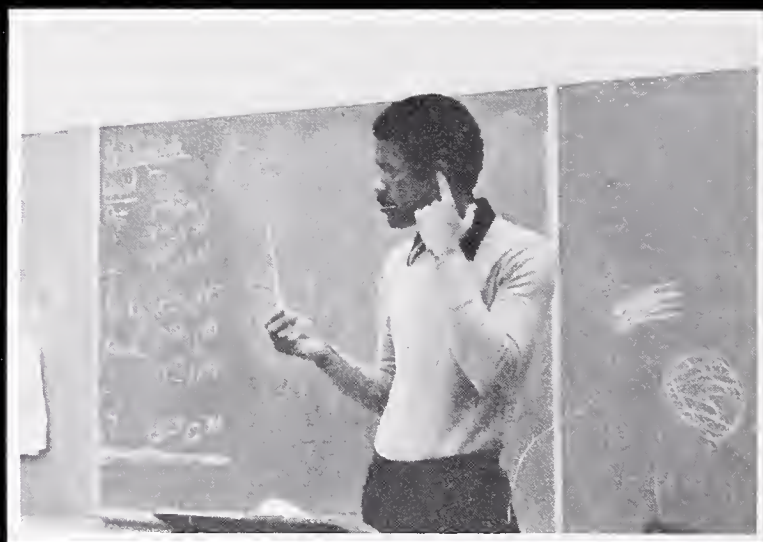

"So you have a headache now?! In a second, you'll know what a real headache is!"

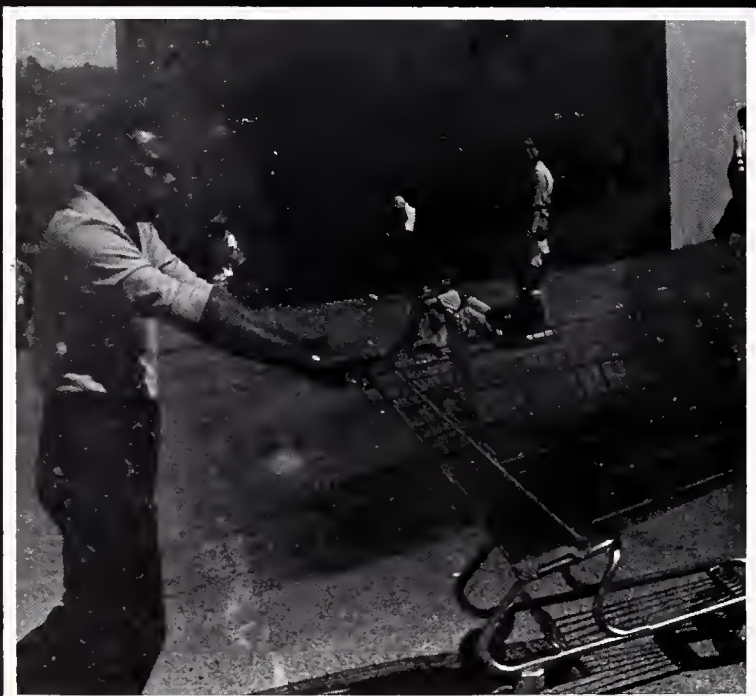

Muggers in the hall

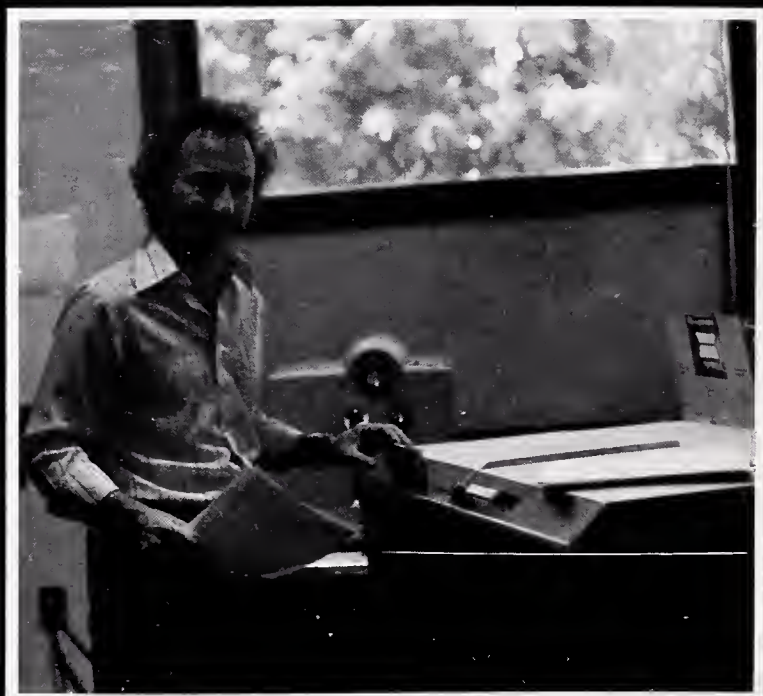

There once was a teacher named Russ,
Whose desk was always a muss,
That she loved it that way,
No one e'er would gainsay,
For they knew that she'd raise quite a fuss.

"What's crawling in my ear?"

"This is the third time she's sent me shopping this week!"
